Invitation to a free seminar

On 6 november 2018, Gwen Bevers, Geert De Buyzer and Joost van Riel will be speaking (in Dutch) at a free seminar held in cooperation with Federale Verzekeringen on the new company law.

The program will be as follows:

19:30: Reception with coffee and biscuits

20:00: Start of the presentation with answers to the following questions:

What will happen to the capital of your private limited liability company and how will you be able to distribute profits after its transformation into a new private company?

How will you be safeguarded as a creditor of a private company without capital?

What will the governance of a Limited Liability Company look like in the future?

How strict will your personal liability as a director become and how can you protect yourself from it?

What will happen with the abolished TCC?

When will all this become effective and what are the transitional measures?

21:30 Reception with drinks and snacks.
